Art Unit: 1752

1. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over International publication 99/219935 or Vitukhnovsky et al. both in view of International Publication WO 2003/017731 to Bellmann et al. The rationale of this rejection is set forth in item 1 of the last office action, filed 6-21-05, with WO 2003/017731 replacing the equivalent US patent to Bellmann et al. WO 2003/017731 is available as a reference under 35 USC 102(a).

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-17 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,844,128 to Hsu et al. in view of International Publication 99/219935 and Vitukhnovsky et al. Hsu et al. claims methods of thermally transferring light emitting dendrimers to receptors. While the transfer layers in Hsu et al. also contain electrically active material, it would be obvious to one skilled in the art to make known electroluminescent layers consisting of light emitting dendrimers as in 99/219935 and Vitukhnovsky et al. by transferring only light emitting dendrimers from the transfer layers in Hsu et al. It would be obvious to make known electroluminescent devices using the transfer donors and receptors of Hsu et al. by using transfer layers of the claims in Hsu et al. with the electrically active material removed particularly since the dendrimers are the transferring binders in Hsu et al.

3. Bellmann et al. '525 is cited of interest as being the published application of the US patent to Bellmann et al.
